

Dedication of a Church.
On Sunday morning, the full choir of ladies and gentlemen, left the Methodist Church to attend the dedicatory services of a church in High Prairie Township. The distance is about eight miles, and the journey out and back was a very pleasant one. The new church is on the old road, directly west of the city, and the ride out is through a rich and well settled portion of our country; the farms are well fenced, the houses good, and there is every indication of abundance and prosperity. The church is in the same corner with the old school house, and near the large and fine residence of Mrs. J. P. Saldaña. The building is of wood, of good size, well built, and very neatly and comfortably finished.

The people turned out in large numbers to aid in dedicating a church which their bounty had erected, and every seat in the commodious building was occupied. The sermon in the morning was preached by Rev. D. P. Mitchell. He took his text from Acts, xxi, 8: "Why should ye be thought a thing incredible?" "Why should ye be thought a thing incredible?" "Why should ye be thought a thing incredible?"

We have rarely seen more close attention given by old and young to the words of the preacher. The speaker delighted in stating the views of opponents in very strong terms and then proceeding very quietly to topple them all over. There was no one to dispute his long breath, and he said to himself: "Well, I am glad he has knocked the wind out of that argument; it has troubled me long enough." The irrepressible conflict between the old and new testament scriptures. The speaker delighted in stating the views of opponents in very strong terms and then proceeding very quietly to topple them all over.

Another strong point was made on the position recently taken by Mr. Beecher that the Jews had not been taught the doctrine of the Bible was true, and immediately followed the remark by the following quotation from Stimpson: "The Bible must be the invention of good men or angels; of bad men or devils; of God. It could not be the invention of good men or angels; for they neither would nor could make a book and tell lies all the while they were writing it, saying: 'Thus saith the Lord,' when it was their own invention. It could not be the invention of bad men or devils; for they neither would nor could make a book and tell lies all the while they were writing it, saying: 'Thus saith the Lord,' when it was their own invention."

After the discourse, Rev. Mr. Robinson stated that the church had been in progress about two years and that $2,800 had been raised, but $500 [a statement of the work, subscriptions, etc.] will probably be published in THE TIMES.

Mr. Mitchell, when he came here, in 1862, there were only seven Methodist churches in Kansas, and the progress in the rest of the State had been equally marvelous. In his judgment, if the churches had during the last fifty years Protestant pastors to fill their pulpits, they would have maintained their government. If they had had free public schools, they would have had free schools. In this country where the Romanists were better patriots than in Europe, and the better opposition to the stigma of infidelity had come from American bishops.

Subscriptions to the amount of about one hundred and fifty dollars were taken in the evening. The Leavenworth guests were very handsomely entertained at the hospitable mansion of Mr. Saldaña, and we think we express the wishes of them all, when we return to him and his family the most hearty thanks.

FOREK.
Farmers Holding Back for Higher Prices.
We yesterday visited the leading packing houses, and found transactions very light. Considering the favorableness of the weather little pork has been cut up so far this season. The price, not yesterday, was 70¢; gross, 75¢; but the farmers and hog raisers, influenced probably by the prospect for long continued war in Europe, are looking for higher prices, and holding on to their pork. It is estimated that there are three times as many fat hogs in the State as there has ever been before, and they are of a superior quality. One packer informs us that he took a trip through the interior of the country, and found many farmers holding back, some for 50¢, and a few confidently anticipating 75¢, judging from the tone of Eastern markets, all such high hopes will be vain.

A few wagon loads of dressed hogs come in every day, but are generally by small raisers, who are compelled to sell at once. It is expected that a heavy business will be done in this line this winter as the facilities are at hand for packing hogs in almost unlimited numbers. If the present very favorable weather continues we may look for a great amount of pork to come in within a month. We copy the following from the St. Louis Republic of Monday:

Hogs.—The week opened with a strong demand and active movement in hogs, with very favorable weather for slaughtering and packing, and several of our packers took hold with activity. This condition of things continued up to the latter part of the week, when, under the influence of large arrivals and supplies, the market became rather dull and depressed, and gradually receded from fifty to seventy cents per 100 lbs. gross. At this decline, however, the demand has been steady and fair, but not remarkably sharp or buoyant, and packers have shown a slow and rather curious policy. The rates demanded by sellers not being satisfactory to packers, they continue to purchase rather cautiously. The clearing prices for the week were from 56 to 58 1/2 for prime to extra packing quality.

WEBSTER'S DICTIONARY will be found advertised in our columns to-day. Saving the spelling, which has been in a great measure corrected since Dr. Webster died, this is the greatest English lexicon accessible to the people. The amount of information contained in it is so great as to be a great aid to all who are engaged in study.

NEWS BY TELEGRAPH

FOREIGN.

THE EASTERN QUESTION.
A PROTESTANT MEMBER OF THE ENGLISH PARLIAMENT HAS BEEN ELECTED TO THE HOUSE OF COMMONS. The member is Mr. J. P. Saldaña, who was elected to the House of Commons on November 24, 1870. He is a member of the Protestant faith, and his election is a significant event in the history of the House of Commons.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.
The House of Representatives met on November 24, 1870. The session was called to order by the Speaker, and the House proceeded with the business of the day. The members of the House were present in large numbers, and the session was conducted in a regular and orderly manner.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.
The House of Commons met on November 24, 1870. The session was called to order by the Speaker, and the House proceeded with the business of the day. The members of the House were present in large numbers, and the session was conducted in a regular and orderly manner.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.
The House of Commons met on November 24, 1870. The session was called to order by the Speaker, and the House proceeded with the business of the day. The members of the House were present in large numbers, and the session was conducted in a regular and orderly manner.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.
The House of Commons met on November 24, 1870. The session was called to order by the Speaker, and the House proceeded with the business of the day. The members of the House were present in large numbers, and the session was conducted in a regular and orderly manner.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.
The House of Commons met on November 24, 1870. The session was called to order by the Speaker, and the House proceeded with the business of the day. The members of the House were present in large numbers, and the session was conducted in a regular and orderly manner.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.
The House of Commons met on November 24, 1870. The session was called to order by the Speaker, and the House proceeded with the business of the day. The members of the House were present in large numbers, and the session was conducted in a regular and orderly manner.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.
The House of Commons met on November 24, 1870. The session was called to order by the Speaker, and the House proceeded with the business of the day. The members of the House were present in large numbers, and the session was conducted in a regular and orderly manner.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.
The House of Commons met on November 24, 1870. The session was called to order by the Speaker, and the House proceeded with the business of the day. The members of the House were present in large numbers, and the session was conducted in a regular and orderly manner.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.
The House of Commons met on November 24, 1870. The session was called to order by the Speaker, and the House proceeded with the business of the day. The members of the House were present in large numbers, and the session was conducted in a regular and orderly manner.

NEWS BY TELEGRAPH

FOREIGN.

THE EASTERN QUESTION.
A PROTESTANT MEMBER OF THE ENGLISH PARLIAMENT HAS BEEN ELECTED TO THE HOUSE OF COMMONS. The member is Mr. J. P. Saldaña, who was elected to the House of Commons on November 24, 1870. He is a member of the Protestant faith, and his election is a significant event in the history of the House of Commons.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.
The House of Representatives met on November 24, 1870. The session was called to order by the Speaker, and the House proceeded with the business of the day. The members of the House were present in large numbers, and the session was conducted in a regular and orderly manner.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.
The House of Commons met on November 24, 1870. The session was called to order by the Speaker, and the House proceeded with the business of the day. The members of the House were present in large numbers, and the session was conducted in a regular and orderly manner.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.
The House of Commons met on November 24, 1870. The session was called to order by the Speaker, and the House proceeded with the business of the day. The members of the House were present in large numbers, and the session was conducted in a regular and orderly manner.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.
The House of Commons met on November 24, 1870. The session was called to order by the Speaker, and the House proceeded with the business of the day. The members of the House were present in large numbers, and the session was conducted in a regular and orderly manner.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.
The House of Commons met on November 24, 1870. The session was called to order by the Speaker, and the House proceeded with the business of the day. The members of the House were present in large numbers, and the session was conducted in a regular and orderly manner.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.
The House of Commons met on November 24, 1870. The session was called to order by the Speaker, and the House proceeded with the business of the day. The members of the House were present in large numbers, and the session was conducted in a regular and orderly manner.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.
The House of Commons met on November 24, 1870. The session was called to order by the Speaker, and the House proceeded with the business of the day. The members of the House were present in large numbers, and the session was conducted in a regular and orderly manner.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.
The House of Commons met on November 24, 1870. The session was called to order by the Speaker, and the House proceeded with the business of the day. The members of the House were present in large numbers, and the session was conducted in a regular and orderly manner.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.
The House of Commons met on November 24, 1870. The session was called to order by the Speaker, and the House proceeded with the business of the day. The members of the House were present in large numbers, and the session was conducted in a regular and orderly manner.

NEWS BY TELEGRAPH

FOREIGN.

THE EASTERN QUESTION.
A PROTESTANT MEMBER OF THE ENGLISH PARLIAMENT HAS BEEN ELECTED TO THE HOUSE OF COMMONS. The member is Mr. J. P. Saldaña, who was elected to the House of Commons on November 24, 1870. He is a member of the Protestant faith, and his election is a significant event in the history of the House of Commons.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.
The House of Representatives met on November 24, 1870. The session was called to order by the Speaker, and the House proceeded with the business of the day. The members of the House were present in large numbers, and the session was conducted in a regular and orderly manner.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.
The House of Commons met on November 24, 1870. The session was called to order by the Speaker, and the House proceeded with the business of the day. The members of the House were present in large numbers, and the session was conducted in a regular and orderly manner.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.
The House of Commons met on November 24, 1870. The session was called to order by the Speaker, and the House proceeded with the business of the day. The members of the House were present in large numbers, and the session was conducted in a regular and orderly manner.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.
The House of Commons met on November 24, 1870. The session was called to order by the Speaker, and the House proceeded with the business of the day. The members of the House were present in large numbers, and the session was conducted in a regular and orderly manner.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.
The House of Commons met on November 24, 1870. The session was called to order by the Speaker, and the House proceeded with the business of the day. The members of the House were present in large numbers, and the session was conducted in a regular and orderly manner.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.
The House of Commons met on November 24, 1870. The session was called to order by the Speaker, and the House proceeded with the business of the day. The members of the House were present in large numbers, and the session was conducted in a regular and orderly manner.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.
The House of Commons met on November 24, 1870. The session was called to order by the Speaker, and the House proceeded with the business of the day. The members of the House were present in large numbers, and the session was conducted in a regular and orderly manner.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.
The House of Commons met on November 24, 1870. The session was called to order by the Speaker, and the House proceeded with the business of the day. The members of the House were present in large numbers, and the session was conducted in a regular and orderly manner.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.
The House of Commons met on November 24, 1870. The session was called to order by the Speaker, and the House proceeded with the business of the day. The members of the House were present in large numbers, and the session was conducted in a regular and orderly manner.

NEWS BY TELEGRAPH

FOREIGN.

THE EASTERN QUESTION.
A PROTESTANT MEMBER OF THE ENGLISH PARLIAMENT HAS BEEN ELECTED TO THE HOUSE OF COMMONS. The member is Mr. J. P. Saldaña, who was elected to the House of Commons on November 24, 1870. He is a member of the Protestant faith, and his election is a significant event in the history of the House of Commons.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.
The House of Representatives met on November 24, 1870. The session was called to order by the Speaker, and the House proceeded with the business of the day. The members of the House were present in large numbers, and the session was conducted in a regular and orderly manner.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.
The House of Commons met on November 24, 1870. The session was called to order by the Speaker, and the House proceeded with the business of the day. The members of the House were present in large numbers, and the session was conducted in a regular and orderly manner.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.
The House of Commons met on November 24, 1870. The session was called to order by the Speaker, and the House proceeded with the business of the day. The members of the House were present in large numbers, and the session was conducted in a regular and orderly manner.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.
The House of Commons met on November 24, 1870. The session was called to order by the Speaker, and the House proceeded with the business of the day. The members of the House were present in large numbers, and the session was conducted in a regular and orderly manner.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.
The House of Commons met on November 24, 1870. The session was called to order by the Speaker, and the House proceeded with the business of the day. The members of the House were present in large numbers, and the session was conducted in a regular and orderly manner.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.
The House of Commons met on November 24, 1870. The session was called to order by the Speaker, and the House proceeded with the business of the day. The members of the House were present in large numbers, and the session was conducted in a regular and orderly manner.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.
The House of Commons met on November 24, 1870. The session was called to order by the Speaker, and the House proceeded with the business of the day. The members of the House were present in large numbers, and the session was conducted in a regular and orderly manner.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.
The House of Commons met on November 24, 1870. The session was called to order by the Speaker, and the House proceeded with the business of the day. The members of the House were present in large numbers, and the session was conducted in a regular and orderly manner.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.
The House of Commons met on November 24, 1870. The session was called to order by the Speaker, and the House proceeded with the business of the day. The members of the House were present in large numbers, and the session was conducted in a regular and orderly manner.

NEWS BY TELEGRAPH

FOREIGN.

THE EASTERN QUESTION.
A PROTESTANT MEMBER OF THE ENGLISH PARLIAMENT HAS BEEN ELECTED TO THE HOUSE OF COMMONS. The member is Mr. J. P. Saldaña, who was elected to the House of Commons on November 24, 1870. He is a member of the Protestant faith, and his election is a significant event in the history of the House of Commons.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.
The House of Representatives met on November 24, 1870. The session was called to order by the Speaker, and the House proceeded with the business of the day. The members of the House were present in large numbers, and the session was conducted in a regular and orderly manner.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.
The House of Commons met on November 24, 1870. The session was called to order by the Speaker, and the House proceeded with the business of the day. The members of the House were present in large numbers, and the session was conducted in a regular and orderly manner.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.
The House of Commons met on November 24, 1870. The session was called to order by the Speaker, and the House proceeded with the business of the day. The members of the House were present in large numbers, and the session was conducted in a regular and orderly manner.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.
The House of Commons met on November 24, 1870. The session was called to order by the Speaker, and the House proceeded with the business of the day. The members of the House were present in large numbers, and the session was conducted in a regular and orderly manner.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.
The House of Commons met on November 24, 1870. The session was called to order by the Speaker, and the House proceeded with the business of the day. The members of the House were present in large numbers, and the session was conducted in a regular and orderly manner.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.
The House of Commons met on November 24, 1870. The session was called to order by the Speaker, and the House proceeded with the business of the day. The members of the House were present in large numbers, and the session was conducted in a regular and orderly manner.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.
The House of Commons met on November 24, 1870. The session was called to order by the Speaker, and the House proceeded with the business of the day. The members of the House were present in large numbers, and the session was conducted in a regular and orderly manner.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.
The House of Commons met on November 24, 1870. The session was called to order by the Speaker, and the House proceeded with the business of the day. The members of the House were present in large numbers, and the session was conducted in a regular and orderly manner.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.
The House of Commons met on November 24, 1870. The session was called to order by the Speaker, and the House proceeded with the business of the day. The members of the House were present in large numbers, and the session was conducted in a regular and orderly manner.

NEWS BY TELEGRAPH

FOREIGN.

THE EASTERN QUESTION.
A PROTESTANT MEMBER OF THE ENGLISH PARLIAMENT HAS BEEN ELECTED TO THE HOUSE OF COMMONS. The member is Mr. J. P. Saldaña, who was elected to the House of Commons on November 24, 1870. He is a member of the Protestant faith, and his election is a significant event in the history of the House of Commons.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.
The House of Representatives met on November 24, 1870. The session was called to order by the Speaker, and the House proceeded with the business of the day. The members of the House were present in large numbers, and the session was conducted in a regular and orderly manner.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.
The House of Commons met on November 24, 1870. The session was called to order by the Speaker, and the House proceeded with the business of the day. The members of the House were present in large numbers, and the session was conducted in a regular and orderly manner.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.
The House of Commons met on November 24, 1870. The session was called to order by the Speaker, and the House proceeded with the business of the day. The members of the House were present in large numbers, and the session was conducted in a regular and orderly manner.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.
The House of Commons met on November 24, 1870. The session was called to order by the Speaker, and the House proceeded with the business of the day. The members of the House were present in large numbers, and the session was conducted in a regular and orderly manner.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.
The House of Commons met on November 24, 1870. The session was called to order by the Speaker, and the House proceeded with the business of the day. The members of the House were present in large numbers, and the session was conducted in a regular and orderly manner.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.
The House of Commons met on November 24, 1870. The session was called to order by the Speaker, and the House proceeded with the business of the day. The members of the House were present in large numbers, and the session was conducted in a regular and orderly manner.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.
The House of Commons met on November 24, 1870. The session was called to order by the Speaker, and the House proceeded with the business of the day. The members of the House were present in large numbers, and the session was conducted in a regular and orderly manner.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.
The House of Commons met on November 24, 1870. The session was called to order by the Speaker, and the House proceeded with the business of the day. The members of the House were present in large numbers, and the session was conducted in a regular and orderly manner.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.
The House of Commons met on November 24, 1870. The session was called to order by the Speaker, and the House proceeded with the business of the day. The members of the House were present in large numbers, and the session was conducted in a regular and orderly manner.

NEWS BY TELEGRAPH

FOREIGN.

THE EASTERN QUESTION.
A PROTESTANT MEMBER OF THE ENGLISH PARLIAMENT HAS BEEN ELECTED TO THE HOUSE OF COMMONS. The member is Mr. J. P. Saldaña, who was elected to the House of Commons on November 24, 1870. He is a member of the Protestant faith, and his election is a significant event in the history of the House of Commons.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.
The House of Representatives met on November 24, 1870. The session was called to order by the Speaker, and the House proceeded with the business of the day. The members of the House were present in large numbers, and the session was conducted in a regular and orderly manner.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.
The House of Commons met on November 24, 1870. The session was called to order by the Speaker, and the House proceeded with the business of the day. The members of the House were present in large numbers, and the session was conducted in a regular and orderly manner.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.
The House of Commons met on November 24, 1870. The session was called to order by the Speaker, and the House proceeded with the business of the day. The members of the House were present in large numbers, and the session was conducted in a regular and orderly manner.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.
The House of Commons met on November 24, 1870. The session was called to order by the Speaker, and the House proceeded with the business of the day. The members of the House were present in large numbers, and the session was conducted in a regular and orderly manner.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.
The House of Commons met on November 24, 1870. The session was called to order by the Speaker, and the House proceeded with the business of the day. The members of the House were present in large numbers, and the session was conducted in a regular and orderly manner.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.
The House of Commons met on November 24, 1870. The session was called to order by the Speaker, and the House proceeded with the business of the day. The members of the House were present in large numbers, and the session was conducted in a regular and orderly manner.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.
The House of Commons met on November 24, 1870. The session was called to order by the Speaker, and the House proceeded with the business of the day. The members of the House were present in large numbers, and the session was conducted in a regular and orderly manner.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.
The House of Commons met on November 24, 1870. The session was called to order by the Speaker, and the House proceeded with the business of the day. The members of the House were present in large numbers, and the session was conducted in a regular and orderly manner.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.
The House of Commons met on November 24, 1870. The session was called to order by the Speaker, and the House proceeded with the business of the day. The members of the House were present in large numbers, and the session was conducted in a regular and orderly manner.

INDISPUTABLE FACTS!

INDISPUTABLE FACTS!

It may be mentioned, without fear of contradiction, that the...

SIX GREATEST W
OF THE AGE

ARE THE FOLLOWING:
Edward Wilder's

STOMACH BITTERS
Edward Wilder's

SARSAPILLA & POTASH
Compound Elix.

WILD CHERRY
Compound Elix.

CHILL TONIC
Edward Wilder's

MOTHERS' WORM SYRUP
Edward Wilder's

FAMILY PILLS
Edward Wilder's

EDWARD WILDER, JR.
No. 215 Main Street, Louisville, Ky.